BBC Radio 4 - Book at Bedtime

1 Kudos to author Nikki Grimes and artist Elizabeth Zunon, who together have created a most unusual bedtime book in Bedtime for Sweet Creatures. One of the most unusual things about the text is that it is narrated by the protagonist's mother, who throughout the book addresses her child as she coaxes the child into bed.

I loved reading this book as a child and was fortunate that my sister found a copy for my christmas present. For years as a family we recalled the story of a sardine called Sammy and his encounter with a great grey whale, so it was a true pleasure to have the story in my hands and to reread and discover that it really was great not just rose tinted spectacles!
